

Constitution and Citizenship Day

Section 111(b) states “each educational institution that receives Federal funds for a fiscal year shall hold an educational program on the United States Constitution on September 17 of such year for the students served by the educational institution.”

Instructors will pass out handouts of a facsimile of the first page of the constitution and also several pages of questions and answers pertaining to the constitution. Students will be required to sign a roster indicating they received the information and its relevance.
